In September 2018, the Farm Bill as the right path forward.
The architects of the Farm Bill were given more power to make harsh work requirements, and “missed an opportunity to help able-bodied SNAP recipients trim the fat on poverty.” Senators are wrong. Most SNAP recipients who can work, already do work. In Iowa, 84 percent of SNAP families have at least one working member. If the 2018 Farm Bill makes it harder for people to eat, it certainly isn’t providing opportunities.

Learning as adventure, as one can’t wait to experience what is about to happen. This kind of learning is meaningful. It opens new worlds and builds broader horizons. This kind of learning is a more powerful catalyst. The learning will set you on the path for how you live the rest of your life. It will put you on a course to identify goals, and develop other life skills. Learning as adventure, as one can’t wait to experience what is about to happen. This kind of learning is meaningful.
